1. Membership in the Scottish Rite Business Alliance (SRBA) does not constitute an endorsement by the Supreme Council or the Scottish Rite for your business or any products you sell.
2. The Supreme Council reserves the right to remove any company and/or product from the SRBA, with or without any reason, at any time.
3. No business that sells products considered inappropriate by the Supreme Council will be permitted to become a member of the SRBA.
4. No exclusivity will be granted to any business or product within the SRBA.
5. All businesses who participate in the SRBA agree to make a donation to the House of the Temple Historic Preservation Foundation, Inc. for each sale generated through the SRBA. The amount may be a percentage or a fixed amount and will be agreed upon by the Supreme Council Development Office and the applicant. Donations will be paid quarterly to the foundation.
6. Any business that wishes to participate in the SRBA will provide a corporate logo or image for the SRBA web site, a brief description of your products and/or services, and appropriate contact information. Send information to developmentoffice@scottishrite.org. Further specifications will then be provided.
7. The Supreme Council cannot accept any applications from a business that sells and/or promotes political materials, causes, endorses political candidates or is otherwise engaged in partisan activities.
8. All SRBA members are responsible for selling, billing and shipping their products/services. The Supreme Council is providing a link to your business and is not serving as a distributor, web store, or outlet for said products/services.
9. The Supreme Council, may, at its discretion, eliminate the SRBA program at any time.
10. No guarantee of sales or inquiries is implied or promised by the Supreme Council for SRBA members.
