BIBLE OVER 100 YEARS OLD

OVER 300 VOLUMES WAITING TO GO TO THE BINDERY

Several years ago, the Library used Mid-Atlantic book bindery for our binding needs. I am in the process of finding another book binder that can take care of all of the volumes waiting to go to the bindery. Books needing binding are grand lodge transactions from the different states and Masonic periodicals. For the lodge transactions, we bind together several copies in numerical order. This helps preserve the paper copies of the transactions. With the periodicals, we bind one year of a specific periodical in monthly order. This makes researching a lot more efficient.

ARE YOU COMING OR GOING E-BOOK BY JIM RAGSDALE

RARE BOOK VAULT

In this issue of Amicus Librarium we are highlighting two unique Masonic books that we have in the Library.

1. Collection of bound Masonic Almanacs starting with the date 1824–1876. These Masonic Almanacs contain all sorts of interesting information; calendars, Hebrew calendars, astronomy, history, list of lodges, meetings of lodges, predictions, humor, similes, etc.
2. Washington and his Masonic Compeers by Sidney Hayden, 1866. First Edition. This book tries its best to research the Masonic activity of George Washington, the author states, “Of the Compeers, we have not written labored sketches. We have only given such Masonic facts as came under our observation in our researches in the Masonic history of Washington.”
